Fire Chief James Paulett

During the month of March the department responded to 88 emergency calls; 54 out of Station One, 28 out of Station Two, and 6 dual station responses.

Captain Hower conducted a Hazardous Materials refresher course on March 4. On Saturday, March 6, Brian Fetzer, John Harper, Steve Kamp, Tom Kamp, Steve Weinert and Chief Paulett attended a Swift Water animal rescue class held at the University of Akron Medina Campus. During rescue operations many citizens refuse rescue if their pets are not afforded the same opportunity. During Katrina, victims were ordered or rescued from their property, only to return for their pets, resulting in having to be rescued again.

This eight hour class focused on safe rescue techniques minimizing the chance of injury to rescue workers if attacked by nervous animals, as well as, dealing with citizens during critical situations. FEMA mandates that at least one member of each search and rescue team be trained in animal rescue.

Terry Brock, Lt. Kevin Hylbert, Mike Marias, Matt Null, George Seifert, and Al Smesko completed CPR Instructor recertification while Brian Fetzer and Chris Anselm recertified in ITLS (International Trauma Life Support) at Copley Fire.

On the evening of March 11, Richfield Fire hosted a four-hour class on psychological emergencies instructed by AGMC's Department of Psychiatry Chair Dr. Jeffrey Moore and Sgt. Mike Yoho from Akron Police Department. Thirty-six of the fire department's members attended the session teaching how to provide for those in need without putting the department at risk.

Asst. Chief Gemind attended an EMD review meeting with Jeremy Emerson; in April the steering committee will convene to discuss policy and procedures.

Fire-medic Anselm has been deployed to active duty again with the Navy Reserve unit. He will be stationed at Quantico and Camp Pendleton for the month of April. Deployment could possibly last until October.

The Chief thanked Part-time Volunteer Firefighter-EMT Frank DeLorenzo, a 10-year member of the department, who resigned in March due to relocating out of the 6XXX
